

LEGAL SERVICES FOR ARTISTS AND OTHER ENTREPRENEURS

- ❖ Art Law. The Community Enterprise Project (CEP) of the WilmerHale Legal Services Center of Harvard Law School provides legal assistance to musicians, artists, arts organizations, and other small businesses and non-profit organizations.
- ❖ Services. Examples of legal services include copyright and trademark advice, research and registration; contract review, preparation and negotiation; business formation and choice of entity counseling; commercial financing; commercial leasing; business permits, licensing and zoning; non-profit organization formation and tax exemption.
- ❖ Contact. New clients should call our intake line at 617-522-3003 and ask to speak with the Community Enterprise Project. Our office hours are 8:30 AM - 6:00 P.M. Our services are provided year-round. Clients are seen on an appointment basis.
- ❖ Cost. Our services are provided on a free or reduced-fee (flat fee) basis, depending upon household income.
- ❖ Location. Our office is conveniently located at 122 Boylston Street, Jamaica Plain Massachusetts 02130, next to the Stoneybrook T Station on the Orange Line. Free off-street parking is available.
- ❖ Website. For further information about our arts related legal services, please visit our website at: <http://www.law.harvard.edu/academics/clinical/lsc/clinics/rap.htm>, or <http://www.law.harvard.edu/academics/clinical/lsc/clinics/business.htm> or call 617-522-3003.

